

Common Course Outline
ALHT 201
Occupational Specific Theory Level 1
3 Credits

Community College of Baltimore County

Description

ALHT 201 – Occupational Specific Theory Level 1 provides the awarding of articulated credits after completion of a CCBC Workforce Training Certificate Program or a recognized and accepted health career program.

3 Credits

Prerequisite: Acceptance into the Allied Health program.

Overall Course Objectives

The student will have completed a CCBC Workforce Training Certificate Program or a recognized and accepted health career program.

Major Topics

Topics are related to career specific theory related to the area of health practice.

Course Requirements

Completion of content within the CCBC Workforce Training Certificate Program or a recognized and accepted health career program of study which contains over forty-five (45) hours of didactic content in the practice of a specific health care role.

Grading/ Exams

Credit is given in this course for prior learning. There is no grade associated with the course.

Other Course Information

This course is a core course for the Allied Health major.