

ENGL 201

British Literature I

3 Credits

Community College of Baltimore County
Common Course Outline

Description

ENGL 201 – British Literature I: is a course in which students examine British Literature beginning with Anglo Saxon works through the eighteenth century (Neoclassical literature), highlighting the cultural, historical, and literary influences on each work.

Pre-requisites: successful completion of English 101 with a C or better.

Overall Course Objectives

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. connect the cultural, historical, and literary influences on works studied to broader historical contexts;
2. discuss different literary genres and periods as they have been traditionally defined, and the ways in which these definitions have been challenged;
3. analyze stylistic characteristics and recurring themes reflected in literary works of each period;
4. engage in critical discussion about questions and problems related to the texts;
5. examine changing societal values and mores of the literary era as they relate to the moral and ethical decisions of individuals;
6. assess the ways in which the selected literature reflects and also contributes to its particular historical moment and cultural context;
7. analyze the ways in which issues of race, gender, and class shape works of literature;
8. write a well-informed, logical literary analysis using appropriate terminology and textual support;
9. find, evaluate, use, and cite appropriate academic sources into essays according to the assigned formatting and style guide;
10. utilize digital resources for exploring humanities as appropriate to the academic environment; and
11. compose stylistically correct assignments using appropriate technology.
